

Australian Writer. Musician. Teacher. Ideas person.

 www.simonepitot.com

 www.twitter.com/simonepitot

 www.facebook.com/simonepitot

Simone Pitot

The Science and Chaos of Words and Music

2013

Moved to Montreal

On an aeroplane wing and a prayer, I moved to the pseudo-European bohemia that is Montreal, to further my career as a musician and a writer. New city, new language, new life!

Simone as Writer

Started publishing written creative works to the web and magazines including Hush Magazine in Vancouver.

2012

Simone as Saleswoman

Found myself in Vancouver, going back and forth from there to Portland to finish recording my forthcoming EP, Its Own Animal, and took a job as a sales assistant at a high-end fashion store.

Simone as Singer-Songwriter

Travelled around America, living in a van, wrote and recorded a new EP with US Label Fluff and Gravy Records, to be out and about in Australian and US stores in Fall 2013.

2011

Simone as Qualified Human

Achieved a Distinction in my Licentiate Diploma of Music qualification through Trinity College London RockschooL.

2009

Simone as Public Servant

Location: Australia, Worked a couple of intense and intellectually thrilling years as a policy officer, crafting words for the Minister for Women, in the Queensland Government.

2006

Simone as Office Worker

Worked in an office, providing information and advice to clients about industrial relations and employment law, specifically, calculating lengthy Excel documents so that employers in the construction industry in Australia would know what, when and how to pay their workers.

Simone as Singing Teacher

Taught singing and guitar in a contemporary music department at an all girls' school in Australia. Coordinated bands and launched the careers of some of Australia's current rock and pop singers.