Started as Competitive Programmer, ended up in the Valley working with the smartest people at the coolest startup.

twitter.com/imslavko

github.com/Slava

www.linkedin.com/profile/view?id=202743839

Slava Kim

Core Engineer at Meteor

2013

Joined Meteor

2012

Joined Collections.me

My first real job! Hacker house included.

IOI 2012

My second IOI. Silver medal this time!

Moved to SF Bay Area

Graduated High School

5 years of the high school are over.

2011

IOI 2011

First try on IOI ended up with a bronze medal, new friends and lots of fun.

First medals on international competitions

IZHO - International competition held in Kazakhstan, 15 countries participating, first experience on international stage.

2010

Won first national competition

First national competition I participated at. Managed to get gold at the first attempt.

2008

Wrote his first program

It was a console C++ program printing "My name is Slava".
At that time I started my Competitive Programming career.

1994

Was born in Kazakhstan

In the Central-Asian country's 300K population city